

RAFTY WANTS YOU!

Shalom TKC Families!

RAFTY is ready for the 2010-2011 school year and we are going to kick-off the new year by hosting NFTY-SAR's LTI (Leadership Training Institute) for our region's TYG (Temple Youth Group) Boards over the weekend of August 27-29, 2010.

Approximately 100 youth group members from around the Southeast are going to arrive at Temple Kehillat Chaim for the weekend, and we need your help. We need housing for all participants. As a host family, you will get to take part in this wonderful experience for our members, and you don't need to have a RAFTY member to be a host family!

We are sure you are asking yourself, "What are we going to do with all those kids for the weekend?" There is religious, educational, and social action programming that they will attend at Temple Kehillat Chaim, and on Saturday night they will get a chance to let loose at a surprise evening program.

There are a few things that you will need to be able to do if you are a host family.

1. Transportation:
  - a. Pick up the teens at TKC on Friday night after programming.
  - b. Drop them off Saturday morning and pick them up Saturday afternoon at TKC.
  - c. Drop off and pick up at the Saturday night at event location.
  - d. Final drop off on Sunday morning Kehillat Chaim.
2. Provide breakfast and dinner on Saturday and snacks on Friday and Saturday evening.
3. Provide activities during their free time on Saturday afternoon. There are many activities we have seen host families provide in the past, and we are happy to give suggestions to you personally.

We look forward to sharing in this incredible event at Temple Kehillat Chaim with you. If you are not able to be a host family, there are many other ways to get involved. Please fill out and give back the Host Family/Volunteer Form. If you have any questions, contact Rachel Snow at raecie@comcast.net
