A Note From the Rabbi

Jason Holtz

Without a Vision, the People Perish

Since the attacks on October 7th when Hamas killed 1,400 Israelis, took 200 hostages, and injured many more, Israel and Gaza have been in a state of turmoil.

One of the early casualties of the war was a belief that the status quo up until then could be maintained. That status quo included many things. One was the belief that Israel could be reasonably secure with Hamas on its border. The Israeli government now pledges an end to Hamas rule. I believe they have every right to pursue that goal according to not just international law, but Israel's own laws of warfare and traditional Jewish ethics. No country can tolerate a group like Hamas on its border.

Another feature of the old status quo was the belief that Israel did not need to focus on Palestinian national aspirations. In fact, in the last five elections in Israel, Palestinian national aspirations did not feature as a major issue for Israeli voters. Israel was content to let Hamas stay in power, believing them not to be a serious threat. Israel at the same time has been constructing new settlements in the West Bank, complicating any future peace agreement.

While Hamas is one hundred percent to blame for this war and every death that comes from it, it is in Israel's own interest for there to be a peaceful State of Palestine.

I don't believe Israel is to blame for there not being a State of Palestine. Israel has accepted multiple international proposals for two states, going all the way back to the UN Partition Plan of 1947. However, Israel should continue doing all it can to make that a reality. That means no new settlements in the West Bank. That means not undermining the Palestinian Authority in the West Bank, which still, in principle anyways, agrees to a two-state solution. Israel has undermined the Palestinian Authority in numerous ways, such as announcing new settlements in the West Bank immediately after bilateral meetings, or freezing tax revenue owed to the Palestinian Authority after Hamas' attacks. Israel needs a strong, peaceful Palestinian Authority to be a counter in influence and power to Hamas.

Our Hebrew Bible says, "Without a vision, the people perish" (Proverbs 29:18). Even now – especially now – we need a vision of peace. That doesn't mean an immediate cease-fire – Israel has a right and obligation to eliminate whatever terrorist capabilities exist that threaten it. But Israel needs to keep alive the hope – the vision for an eventual peace between a State of Israel and a State of Palestine. Theodor Herzl, the father of modern Zionism, said, "Im tirtzu ein zo Aggadah, lihiyot am chofshi b'artzeinu. B'erez Tzion v'yerushalayim. – If you will it, it is no dream, to be a free people in our land. In the land of Zion and Jerusalem." Israel is now an independent country, but still yearns for the sort of freedom that can only come with peace. We need to be as strong in our resolve to pursue peace as we are in pursuing the defeat of Hamas. May that day soon come. Oseh Shalom bimromav, hu ya'aseh shalom. Aleinu v'al kol Yisrael, v'imru, Amen. May the One who makes peace on high make peace for us and for all Israel. Amen.

News from TKC President Seth Litman

Temple Security

“Just checking in to make sure you and the temple family are doing ok? I know there’s been a lot of chaos in the world. It’s unfortunate and sad that your people are constantly under threat. It’s important that everyone maintain a high level of attentiveness in public and online. If at any time someone feels unsafe, please let us know.”
- Email from Detective Sean Thompson, Roswell Police

In light of all that is going on in the world, messages of support like this from our friends at Roswell Police Department are reassuring. This message is a product of the TKC’s long standing relationship with the Roswell Police Department that has forged a climate of mutual respect and the knowledge that its officers are looking out for us.

So, what does TKC do to ensure the safety and security of our members and guests while at the temple? Despite our small size, we have robust security processes – most of which have been in place for many years. This because we have always recognized the unfortunate reality that, although we have never had a threat, one can happen at any time. In this article, I am going to outline most of our systems so that you can continue to participate in our services and activities with peace of mind.

- We require the presence of a police officer on site for all significant gatherings. Roswell Police were asked to increase the frequency of drive-bys during the day.
- Our security system is sophisticated and includes 47 cameras around the Kehillah that provide feeds to the office and several of which are constantly recording. We also have emergency buttons that are in use regularly with people onsite.

- Our staff, clergy and several board members took emergency preparedness and intruder training through the Roswell Police Department. We renew the training from time to time, with the most recent training being earlier this year.
- We have extensive emergency communications protocols in the religious school among the administrators and teachers, as well as safety features in the classrooms known to the teachers and administrators.
- We keep the building locked at all times, and we are now requiring that the doors be open for each person or small group by an usher or the onsite officer. Religious school families should already have blue identification tabs to show at drop off and pickup. If you do not have one, you may ask for one at the office. If you are not a religious school parent or if you are bringing a guest, you may be required to show identification.
- Our sanctuary windows are coated with a reflective film that makes it difficult for anyone to see inside.
- Several of the clergy, staff and board members are on email lists with various organizations that provide alerts relating to security threats in the area.
- We recently reconstituted a security committee that will meet quarterly (or as needed) to assess our security at TKC.

To reiterate, in more than 40 years of existence TKC has never had a threat to its security (verbal or otherwise). Most of the policies above have been in place for many years, and I have no doubt that they play a role in discouraging threats, past and present. Kudos to our current and past boards, clergy, and presidents for getting out ahead of the issue to protect our members and guests. I look forward to seeing you at our services, ongoing events and religious school.

Seth Litman

Membership Committee Update

Last year, 5783, saw the resurgence of chavurot (plural of chavurah) at TKC.

The biggest success has been our “Empty Nesters” group. So far 22 TKC members have joined. We’ve had several get-togethers that were great fun and well-attended.

Becky Langmandel hopes to form a chavurah soon for parents of school age children. If you are interested, contact Becky at bolensky@gmail.com. Joining a chavurah is a wonderful way to get to know other TKC members with similar interests or life stages. And if you are interested in starting a new chavurah, please get in touch with Michael Heldman at michaelheldman@gmail.com or Erica Goodwin at ericasgoodwin@gmail.com.

In other membership news, Daven and Dine in back! Our fourth one will be held on December 1st. Services will begin at 6:15 pm, followed by dinner at Hola Taqueria, 688 Holcomb Bridge Road in Roswell.

Sisterhood

Sisterhood has had a very busy few months! Our August kick-off event was a huge success with our Mitzvah, Margaritas and Moe's night! We filled 52 gently used handbags with personal care items for the women of the Drake House, enjoyed dinner, margaritas and catching up with one another.

For Rosh Hashanah, we created lovely Rosh Hashanah centerpieces with beautiful fall colored flowers that brightened everyone's Rosh Hashanah table.

In October, we had our Sippin' in the Sukkah event. We got together with our fellow sisterhood members in the Sukkah for appetizers, cocktails, desserts and mah jongg. Fun was had by all!

We have completed over a year of volunteer work on Thursday nights with the Food Pantry at Pleasant Hill Church. All of the volunteers who have helped in this endeavor found it meaningful and have enjoyed getting to meet the church members. We invite anyone interested in performing this mitzvah to join our efforts. The Food Pantry is five minutes from TKC, and we help staff it twice a month on Thursday nights for about an hour and a half. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer, please go to kehillatchaim.org/social-action.

The Zaban Paradies Couples Center is moving to a year round project. This center provides housing and life skills training to couples who have found themselves homeless and in need of repairing their lives. TKC has participated for many years with loyal volunteers who work together with other families to bring a meal on the fourth Sunday of each month. Meals may be served or dropped off on the appointed day. For more information or to volunteer, go to kehillatchaim.org/social-action.

Religious School Update

We are having a great Religious School year! Now that the High Holy Days are behind us, we are looking forward to Chanukkah and all the fun and excitement in store.

We are also keenly aware of the world events and what is happening in Israel. Because of that, we have increased security throughout our Sunday school hours, including only using one door for entering and exiting, having emergency buttons on hand on both floors, and keeping classroom doors locked from the outside. These precautions have so far been unneeded but we will continue them as long as the United States Jewish community remains on elevated alert.

We hope that you will join us for our upcoming Chanukkah Celebrations – the first time we are going to have things on all 8 nights here at TKC with our brand NEW oversized menorah to light nightly. We will be partnering with Seeds of Wonder for these events and hope to receive a grant from the Federation to support our efforts. It's also our turn to host the four-synagogue Roswell/East Cobb community Chanukkah event on December 12th. Dinner, DJ, and fun to be had! Invite your friends and neighbors!

From the Mitzner Family Religious School to all of the TKC kehillah, we wish you a joyful, peaceful, and happy New Year! Stay safe and well and we hope to see you around our school on Sunday mornings very soon!

JYG

JYG is off to a great start! We had our kickoff event on October 28th which included a delicious lunch and socializing to get to know each other, followed by tie-dying our JYG t-shirts, and ended with some minute to win it games. We had eight attendees and hope to see even more at our next event!

Our upcoming events include the Youth Engagement Service on November 3rd, a Mitzvah Day with Klub345 to make dog treats for the Chanukkah Palooza on November 12th, Top Golf with RAFTY on December 3rd, and an Escape Room or other fun event on January 28th. This will be a fun year with JYG, and we hope to see your 6th, 7th, and 8th graders at an event soon!

JANUARY 28	Escape Room (or on-site event at TKC) 12:30 - 2:30 at TBD

KLUB345

Join us on November 12th for our annual Mitzvah Day as we make dog biscuits to raise money for the Atlanta Humane Society. Biscuits will be sold during Chanukkah Palooza on December 10th. This worthwhile endeavor will help cement Jewish values in our children and it will be a lot of fun as well. Please send your child with a NUT FREE lunch. An ice cream bar will be provided, so be sure to RSVP by November 8th.

December 3rd we will have a second opportunity to do a good deed as we get together to wrap up the biscuits in preparation for the event. Pizza lunch will be provided. We will finish the day with games.

December 10th we will need volunteers to man the table and sell the treats. We will break up into shifts so that everyone has a chance to participate and free time to enjoy the event.

January 28th we will have youth lounge time and lunch. This is a wonderful way for your kids to get to know other kids at TKC and make new friends.

RSVP's are required so that we can plan for staff and food. Email Klub345@gmail.com to let us know who we can expect for these events.

If you are interested in volunteering at any of these events, please let us know.
